Directions to Hopewood

Athens, Ohio is easily accessed by major highway systems. St. Rt. 33 from the North, St. Rt. 50/32 from the west and St. Rt. 50 from the east. Other highways that tie into these routes include, St Rt. 23 and 7 so look at your map (google, map quest and GPS do pretty well) if you are traveling any distance. All of these state routes are easily accessed by Interstates 70, 71, 75, 77 and 79. If coming from the North of Athens, take 33 around town to 50/32 west. Just after you cross the Hocking River you will see Stimson Ave./Co. Rd. 25 exit. Take this exit and turn left to Co. Rd. 25 Rock Riffle Rd. You are just 6 miles from Hopewood at the inter-section. Continue up 25 (merging left at top of hill to stop sign). Continue forward along N. Coolville Ridge Rd. Meander along the ridge until you pass Companion Plants on right (Kindcade Rd on the left). Companion Plants is a great place to visit and purchase a multitude of unique and hard to find planting stock, Peter and Lisa are great folks to sit and chat with regarding planting and care questions to as well. Take the first left past Companion Plants, about 1.5 miles down the ridge. There is a tan house and garage on the right at the intersection. Rocky Point drops hard to the left down a steep hill. It's a beautiful road so slow down and take it in. Hopewood is about 1.25 miles down this beautiful meandering valley the second drive on the right. Park at the bottom of the hill unless you have 4 or all wheel, you can not back down safely. If you are coming from 50 E (Parkersburg) as you approach Canannville just E of Athens you will see Co. Rd. 24A on the left, take it across the river. At the stop sign (Twp. Garage) take a left along River Road to the first R Mansfield. Continue appx. ½ mile to Willow Creek turn L (The Brown Farm on the corner) continue appx. 1.5 miles along this curvy road (DO NOT Take the first right up the steep Hill) until you pass the beautiful White Farm with Blue Roof and Rock outcrops and continue straight onto Rocky Point (no sign, but do not follow hard left turn). You will pass a small and large cabin on the right and just past the hunter's camp on the R and abandoned trailer on the L the second drive on the L is your desinaton. Smile, take a deep breath you made it.
